Explore Indiana: Accessing Hoosier Parks & Programs

Accessing recreational programs often requires additional planning and preparation to minimize stress and challenges. It may be helpful to contact parks, recreational vendors, and attractions prior to visiting so that you can find out more information about available accessibility and accommodations. For more information about accessible travel and accommodations, visit our Fact Sheet: "Accessible Travel"

Access Pass

Several cultural institutions across the state of Indiana have joined forces to offer an Access Pass, which offers eligible families the opportunity to visit participating attractions for just $2 per family member per visit. To qualify for an Access Pass, families must participate in one or more of the following state assistance programs:

- Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP)
- Healthy Indiana Plan (Basic and Plus)
- Hoosier Care Connect
- Hoosier Healthwise Insurance
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Hoosier Works
- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)
- Traditional Medicaid
- Valid Indiana Foster Care License
- Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)

To apply for a pass online, visit: www.childrensmuseum.org/visit/access-pass, and follow these steps:

1. Add the "Access Pass" item to your cart.
2. Complete the check-out process.
3. Upload photos of your required documents (see the application for a list of documents).
4. Click "Submit".
5. Your application will be reviewed within five business days. You will receive an email after review.

To apply for a pass in-person, visit any of the participating venues listed below (except Dance Kaleidoscope, the Indiana Repertory Theatre, Indianapolis Ballet, Indianapolis Motor Speedway Museum, and the NCAA Hall of Champions) and show an Indiana-issued photo ID and proof of state assistance (confirm the necessary documents prior to your arrival). Access Passes are renewable annually.
